

Charlotte /

Charlotte S.

Eine junge Jüdin flieht 1939 aus Berlin nach Südfrankreich zu den Großeltern, wo sie in der Malerei zu sich selbst findet. Sensible Künstlerbiographie, die auf den autobiographischen Bildern von Charlotte Salomon (1917–1943) basiert.

In 1939, a young Jewish woman flees from Berlin to southern France to her grandparents' place, where she takes up painting and finds her true self. Sensitive biopic based on autobiographical episodes in the life of Charlotte Salomon (1917–1943).

Genre Films against oblivion

Year of Production 1980

Production-Companies CCC Filmkunst GmbH, Cineteam Features (Bussum), Concorde Film Produktie (Den Haag) in cooperation with SFB (German TV channel), BBC (London), RAI (Rome), Filmalpha (Rome)

Producer Artur Brauner, Ferenc Kálmán-Gáll, Robbert Wijsmuller, Jens-Peter Behrend (Co-Producer)

Director Frans Weisz

Main Cast Birgit Doll, Derek Jacobi, Elisabeth Trissenaar

Script Judith Herzberg and Frans Weisz

Book based on the recordings of Charlotte Salomon

Music Egisto Macchi

Colour

Length/Format 2605 m, 95 Min., 1:1,66

Language German, English, Dutch

Subtitles German, Hebrew

Award Bavarian Film Award 1981 for Best Screenplay and Leading Roles

HD, 4K

