

Hanussen / Profeta

Genre Films against oblivion
Year of Production 1987/1988
Production-Company CCC Filmkunst GmbH
Co-Production Mafilm Objektív Stúdió (Budapest) in cooperation with ZDF (German TV channel) and ORF (Austrian TV channel)
Producer Artur Brauner, László Barbarozy
Director István Szabó
Main Cast Klaus Maria Brandauer, Erland Josephson, Ildikó Bánsági
Script István Szabó and Peter Dobai with assistance by Paul Hengge and Gabriella Prekop
Book based on the autobiography "Meine Lebenslinie" of Erik Jan Hanussen
Music György Vukán
Colour
Length/Format 3181 m, 116 Min., 1:1,66
Language German Subtitles English, French, Spanish
Awards Oscar Nomination for Best Foreign Feature Film 1989; Golden Palm Nomination for Best Foreign Feature Film at the International Filmfestival Cannes 1989; Golden Globe Nomination 1989; Klaus-Maria Brandauer nominated for best leading role at European Filmaward 1989
HD

The film depicts the story of Klaus Schneider, a man who has actually lived and was known all over Europe as Erik Jan Hanussen, the clairvoyant and magician. When he foretells Hitler's victory at the polls in Berlin, the Nazis turn to him. His crucial mistake was to predict the Reichstag fire. Hanussen is abducted and murdered in a small forest.

Der Film schildert das Schicksal von Klaus Schneider, der tatsächlich gelebt hat und als Hellseher und Magier Erik Jan Hanussen in Europa Furore machte. Als er in Berlin den Wahlsieg Hitlers voraussagt, werden die Nazis auf ihn aufmerksam. Sein entscheidender Fehler ist die Vorhersage des Reichstagsbrandes. Hanussen wird entführt und in einem Waldstück ermordet.